Prof. Miho Fujimori, an instructor of the Japanese language class, will host a Japanese calligraphy lesson in her class on Saturday, October 26, 2024 (12:00pm-2:00pm). Japanese calligraphy is a traditional art form in Japan, using brush and ink to create beautiful characters, emphasizing harmony, balance, and expression. This part of the class is open to all students. The workshop is conducted in Room B-115. Seating is limited (up to about 10 people). Sign up for the event at <https://bit.ly/lagccEventReg> or by scanning the QR code on this flyer. For inquiries, email Prof. Miho Fujimori at mfujimori@lagcc.cuny.edu
